

Green Woodpecker

Print off and colour the picture in either the colours described below or whatever you fancy.

The Green Woodpecker is the largest of the three woodpeckers that breed in Britain. It is greeny-grey on its upper parts with a bright green rump and red on top of its head.

It is likely to be seen in the wooded gills or on the farmland around the gills (denes).